Reasons for Allowance

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: none of the prior art either alone or in combination disclose or teach of the claimed combination of limitations to warrant a rejection under 35 USC 102 or 103. Specifically, with reference to independent claims 1 and 12, none of the prior art either alone or in combination, disclose or teach of the claimed REMA objective specifically including, as the distinguishing features in combination with the other limitations, a lens portion proximate the image plane in a region where an absolute ray height of an outermost chief ray exceeds an absolute ray height of a marginal ray at the lens surfaces, with the lens portion proximate the image plane comprising a collecting lens and a diverging lens. Specifically, with reference to independent claim 63, none of the prior art either alone or in combination, disclose or teach of the claimed REMA objective specifically including, as the distinguishing features in combination with the other limitations, a lens portion proximate the image plane in a region where an absolute distance of an outermost chief ray to the optical axis exceeds an absolute distance of a marginal ray to the optical axis, with the lens portion proximate the image plane comprising a collecting lens and a diverging lens. Specifically, with reference to independent claim 65, none of the prior art either alone or in combination, disclose or teach of the claimed REMA objective specifically including, as the distinguishing feature in combination with the other limitations, the condenser portion, intermediate portion, and the lens portion proximate the image plane each comprising a collecting lens and a divergent lens.
